

Democracy in Chains!

The Deep History of the Radical Right's Stealth Plan for America
(New York: Viking, 2017)

Professor Nancy MacLean

William H. Chafe Professor of History and Public Policy
Duke University

On the Intellectual Roots of the Radical Right's Concerted Attack on Shared Prosperity, Public Enterprise and Democratic Government

The Koch brothers (Charles and David) may have provided the money, Professor MacLean has commented about her new book, but James M. Buchanan, the founder of the Virginia School of Political Economy and winner of the 1986 Nobel Prize in Economics, "supplied the ideas that made the money effective."

Thursday, November 30, 2017 3 – 5 PM

Alexander Library, 169 College Avenue, New Brunswick
Room 403 (Teleconference/Lecture Hall)

TO RESERVE YOUR SEAT, GO TO: rutgersaaup.org/events

The program will be streamed at: www.facebook.com/RUaaup/and therefore begins promptly at 3 PM.

Please arrive early for a coffee/tea reception from 2:30 – 3 PM.

CO-SPONSORS: Department of History Neo-Liberalism Group; Department of Labor Studies & Employment Relations (SMLR); Rutgers AAUP/AFT